

WORDS OF THANKS AND PRAISE
FOR THE CITIZENS OF MARTINSVILLE AND HENRY COUNTY

Recent months have presented a challenging and stressful time to our citizens. Recent days have added rage and violence across the Nation.

The City profoundly appreciates the manner in which our citizens have recently expressed their political frustrations with dignity, acting respectfully, responsibly, and peacefully towards each other, and maintaining the rule of law.

The City deeply appreciates how our law enforcement and public safety officials engage with our community in a sincerely protective spirit of caring and respect.

This is how America should work.
This how America should be.

Martinsville and Henry County sets an example that the Nation generally would be fortunate to emulate.

Kathy C. Lawson, Mayor

CONCERNING THE CORONAVIRUS / COVID-19 PANDEMIC
UPDATED: JULY 7, 2020

A link to an informational page on coronavirus in Virginia has been established on the City's webpage:
<https://www.martinsville-va.gov/>

Both Governor Northam and President Trump have proclaimed state and national emergencies, and the City has declared a local emergency.

More information on the Governor's orders, restrictions on restaurant dining, how business is to be conducted, and guidance on social distancing, may be found at <https://www.governor.virginia.gov/executive-actions/>

The Supreme Court of Virginia has limited operation of Virginia's courts through July 19:
