Hear an update from the Martinsville-Henry County Economic Development Corporation – Mark Heath of the EDC updated Council on work and activities handled by the EDC including tourism, small business events and awards, research and marketing/recruiting as well as the unemployment rates for Martinsville and Henry County. The water slide at the Smith River Sports Complex was installed a little late in the season but the driving range has been popular with the community. Heath presented a PowerPoint presentation to Council regarding the CAFM training and internship opportunity, a 28-credit course taught over two semesters at Patrick Henry Community College. Bowles asked if the program could be offered through the schools as a dual enrollment option. Heath said that they had discussed this possibility as well as other options. Heath updated Council on the available lots and buildings at the Patriot Center as well as available lots at Commonwealth Crossing. Mayor Turner asked about the comparison done by Blue Ridge Outdoor Magazine, Towarnicki said he had not heard an update this year. Heath said he would check with Jennifer Doss. Turner asked if I73 access would be a consideration for interested parties of the Patriot Center. Hodge asked about finding skilled employees for specific employers like Eastman Film. Heath said that the EDC is working to train those people needed in the specific skills that want to work. Turner asked what the issue is in finding qualified workers. Heath said it's a combination of factors and it's part of the EDC's effort to find employers willing to pay higher salaries to draw qualified workers. Bowles said it was good to see that unemployment rates are down and she thanked him for the Big Dipper waterslide and discounted rates. Bowles suggested a Snap Chat filter for promoting Martinsville tourism to millennials.

Hear finance report – Linda Conover explained the finance reports to Council explaining that numbers are not final until the annual audit process is complete. Hodge made a motion to approve the finance report as presented; Teague seconded the motion with all members voting in favor.
